

Fremar LLC

DP Soybean Storage Program

Fremar LLC will be accepting soybeans delivered to all Fremar locations as space is available for no charge DP storage until June 29, 2012.

Effective Monday, December 5th, any beans delivered to any Fremar LLC locations are eligible for this program. Any beans delivered prior to this date and are on DP open storage will be charged the harvest DP storage policy and must be priced by market close September 28, 2012.

Program is subject to availability of space at each location and is subject to change at any time.

Beans not sold as of market close on June 29, 2012 will be priced at market close on June 29, 2012

Any beans that are delivered for no charge DP storage will only be eligible to be sold on the spot price and will not be eligible to be applied to any existing sale. Any soybeans that are delivered for no charge DP storage must be clear of any liens prior to being placed on no charge DP storage contract.

The dates of delivery are subject to change at any time.

DP storage contracts will be issued every 10 days.
